Fr. Robert Wagner

" Sponsor A Family"

Giving Society

The legacy of Fr. Wagner is vast. His commitment to making this world a better place for people with disabilities was well-established and revered.

Become a part of his legacy and join today.

Give a family on their mission to serve their differently-abled child the information and resources they need. At JERICHO they have access to:

- educational workshops
- 1:1 Family support
- religious education
- connections to information and resources
- Opportunities to befriend and learn from other families with similar struggles

When families participate in the programs provided by JERICHO, they develop a concrete plan for that will serve them at all stages of life.

_____ Yes! We/I want families in Western Mass to know, with certainty, that they are not alone. We support you and all you do to care for your child with different abilities through JERICHO.
