FIRST READING Jonah 3:1-5,10

A reading from the first book of the prophet Jonah

The LORD spoke to Jonah and said, "Jonah, go to the great city of Nineveh and speak to them for me."

Jonah obeyed the LORD and went to Nineveh. The city was so large that it took three days just to walk through it. After walking for a day, Jonah told the people, "Forty days from now Nineveh will be destroyed."

They believed God's message and they set a time when they would all go without eating. Then everyone in the city, no matter who they were, also dressed in sackcloth.

When God saw that the people had stopped doing evil things, he had pity on them and did not destroy them, as he had said.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 25:4-5abc,

6 & 7cd, 8-9

All: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Show me your paths and teach me to follow; guide me by your truth and instruct me. You keep me safe.

All: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Please, LORD, remember, you have always been patient and kind. Show how truly kind you are and remember me.

All: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

You are honest and merciful, and you teach sinners how to follow your path. You lead humble people to do what is right and to stay on your path.

All: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

GOSPEL

Mark 1:14-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

OnAfter John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee and told the good news that comes from God. He said, "The time has come! God's kingdom will soon be here. Turn back to God and believe the good news!"

As Jesus was walking along the shore of Lake Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were fishermen and were casting their nets into the lake. Jesus said to them, "Come with me! I will teach you how to bring in people instead of fish." Right then the two brothers dropped their nets and went with him.

Jesus walked on and soon saw James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat, mending their nets. At once Jesus asked them to come with him. They left their father in the boat with the hired workers and went with him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

January Overview

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, which is celebrated on January 3. The first ten days of January fall during the liturgical season known as Christmas which is represented by the liturgical color white — the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remaining days of January are the beginning of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time.
